

K-Love is an important and unique spiritual resource for my family. If K-Love were replaced by another broadcast with non-spiritually uplifting content, my family and the rest of the listening Christian community would be heart-broken and underserved. The public already seems to have enough secular or vulgar radio stations. Please do not let K-Love be supplanted in our Phoenix market. Thanks for your thoughtful consideration of my humble but serious request.